WEALTHY SAN DIEGAN PUT ON TRIAL IN L. A.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 5.—The task of securing a jury to try the breach of promise suit brought against Bryant H. Howard, wealthy resident of San Diego, by Maude Armfield, now a motion picture actress and formerly a chorus girl, began in the Superior Court today.

Miss Armfield asks $500,000 damages.

She alleges she was married to Howard in San Diego several years ago, and that subsequently it developed that he was not legally divorced from his first wife, and therefore their marriage was void.

She alleges that she continued to live with him under his promise to legally divorce his first wife and marry her.

After the divorce was secured, Miss Armfield says, she consented to the annulment of their marriage in order that they might be married legally again.

This, she asserts, Howard failed to do, though he had promised to do so. She says she lived with him until after the three-year-old child, whose father she declares Howard to be, was born.

PLAN TO TEACH VAGS SCIENTIFIC FARMING

CLEVELAND, O., Feb. 5.—A plan to give the recalcitrant "vag" a hand at scientific farming by putting the 2000 acres of Warrensville Farm, Cleveland's great corrective institution, under scientific cultivation, is being worked out here today.

Not only the tramp who comes out of the police courts with an enforced vacation tagged on him but every prisoner would be given an opportunity to tend his little patch of onions, carrots, peas, corn or whatever the case might be.

The major portion of the farm will be cut up into plots of forty acres or so in order that experimentation can progress on a larger scale than is now customary on state experimentation farms. A complete and scientific record of the crop from "seed to shuck" would be kept by experts.

The proposed project is being put into form on the assumption that Western reserve university and Case School of Applied Science here may some day be merged into a municipal university, requiring a course in scientific agriculture.

FIGHT OVER SHIP PURCHASE BILL NEARING ITS LAST STAND

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—The fight in the Senate over the government ship purchase bill resolved itself today into a play for time on the part of the administration Democrats.

The backers of the measure are using their utmost resources to prevent a coalition of the Republicans and insurgent Democrats from carrying out their program of recommitting the measure without instructions, thus effectually killing it.

This seemed to be the only possible form of activity pending the arrival of other supporters for whom they are waiting.

The action has the endorsement of President Wilson.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—The Norris resolution providing for an investigation of the recent primary campaign in Illinois and Pennsylvania was reported favorably today by the Senate elections committee.

Expect 300 Boosters to Go to San Diego Tomorrow

"Santa Ana Register: Orange county visitors to the Panama-California Exposition Saturday are extended a special invitation to visit the New Mexico building. The structure is unique and contains unique exhibits."

The foregoing telegram was received today by the Register from A. E. Koehler, Jr., chairman of the publicity committee.

A tremendous showing will be made by Orange county at the big San Diego Exposition tomorrow. The Santa Fe is making preparations to haul 300 people from Santa Ana and other points.

At 10 o'clock this morning 175 persons had paid their fares for tickets. Between 35 and 40 telephone calls were received by Secretary Metzger this morning from persons who said they intended going. Secretary Metzger is confident that all these will be on hand tomorrow morning at train time—8 o'clock. Additional fares from Orange, Tustin and other points will swell the total to 300, it is expected.

Orange county badges will be sold to all who want them on the train tomorrow, at 10 cents each.

Tickets for the tree luncheon at San Diego will also be distributed on the train.

Word was received from the exposition committee this afternoon that all having baggage should label it plainly with their names. Those who have determined the hotel at which they intend stopping should mark the name of the hotel on the label also.

The baggage will be taken to the hotel free of charge by the committee. The baggage of those who have not decided upon a hotel will be taken to some point in the city and will later be delivered at the hotels selected.

STARTS TO END LIFE, BUT LIVES TO FIGHT, AND THEN TO GO TO JAIL

PASSAIC FALLS, N. J., Feb. 5.—Charles Steinheaver stood at the brink of the falls, melodramatically gesturing his intent to commit suicide. As his swan song he sang "Die Wacht am Rhein."

Patrolman John Joriet saw him but could not urge the would-be suicide to leave his perilous position.

Joriet scratched his head, and started a competitive concert. He sang "It's a Long Way to Tipperary."

Steinheaver got mad and came down to fight. He rests in jail, instead of the river.

WHEAT CORNER? MAY TOUCHES $1.66 7-8

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—May wheat touched $1.66 7/8 today, the highest price of the present upward movement. The bull turn is said to be the result largely of rumors that "a man of great wealth" would attempt to corner the market.

The price receded three-quarters of a cent by 10:15 o'clock.

Wheat traders insist that speculation is responsible for the present price.

Federal District Attorney Glynn refused to comment on the report that a corner might be attempted, but said he might make a statement later.

May wheat closed at $1.64 1/2. At one time it touched $1.67—a new high mark.

Federal District Attorney Glynn said he suspects there is a plan to corner May wheat and force it to $2. He is investigating.

"Duluth, Kansas City, Buffalo or some other large markets may be entered tomorrow by a syndicate which I believe to be controlled by one man," added the district attorney.

BRITISH MEET TEUTON GAGE OF BATTLE WITH THREAT OF EXTENDING WAR TO TRADE

PARIS, Feb. 4.—German airmen are bombarding the allies' trenches today from Nieuport to Ypres.

An official statement declares two monoplanes bombarded Furnes, the German artillery shelling simultaneously.

Several Taubes have passed over Nieuport, apparently bound for Dunkirk.

The statement admits that the German infantry at Afgones forced the evacuation of a hundred yards of French trenches, but claims that in a counter-attack the French recaptured these, later taking a hundred yards of German trenches.

U. S. WILL DEFY KAISER'S BAN ON TRADE WITH ENGLAND

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—If Germany extends its war zone around England as a blockade, she must make it airtight or America will not recognize it.

This was broadly intimated by government officials today, following a cabinet meeting at which the German question was discussed in detail.

It was officially stated that no protest or other note had been sent to Germany by the State Department.

The probable action is not forecasted, though there are rumors the State Department will protest if the plan is enforced.

An effort is being made to get the names of two men who drove a wagon over about 150 yards of green concrete laid on West Fifth street. The nightwatchman for the pavers said that the two men were intoxicated.

Considerable damage was done to the concrete base of the road. The men removed the barricade at the end of the newly-paved strip and carried away the lantern that had been left there as a warning.

ANDY WANTS EPITAPH 'DAM WHITE OF ANDY'

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—John D. Rockefeller, Sr., testified today before the Federal Industrial Relations Commission in defense of the Rockefeller Foundation. He denied it is a menace to society and insisted the foundation was necessary to systematize donations.

He declared that while directors of large corporations were responsible for labor conditions, all they could do was to get the best possible administrative officers to take charge of those conditions.

Andrew Carnegie preceded Rockefeller. He said he wished this epitaph on his tombstone:

"It was dam white of Andy."

This sentiment was once uttered by a laborer he befriended.

SHERIFF'S DEPUTIES PRESENT THE CHIEF WITH GOLD BADGE

Appreciation of Jackson's Management of Office Shown by Appointees

Sheriff C. E. Jackson has a brand new gold badge, and it is a beauty. The trimming at the top is an eagle. Of course, every one knows that the sheriff has an eagle eye, else he would not have made the success he has made of catching guilty persons, and possibly that is the reason the donors selected the eagle to top the decoration.

"Sheriff Orange Co., Cal." are the words appearing on the face of the handsome badge, and in the center in raised gold letters is a monogram, "C. E. J."

Just how the sheriff came by the insignia is explained by the engraving on the back, reading: "Presented by Theo. Lack, Jr., J. W. Murray, C. C. Maxwell, A. E. Eells, J. H. Iman, J. R. Fowler, J. M. Grunnett, A. K. Cravath, Opal Davis, Mrs. Theo. Lacy, Jr., Jan. 4, 1915."

The donors are the active deputies appointed by the sheriff, and the date is that upon which the sheriff and his deputies began their administration. Last night Deputy Sheriff Fowler told the sheriff that he had made an appointment for the sheriff to meet a man at the office at 8 o'clock. The sheriff was there at the hour named. He is a great hand to keep appointments, even though, as in this instance, he did not know the real reason therefor.

At 8 o'clock the sheriff and Under Sheriff Iman were sitting in the office, and Jackson was wondering why that man, whoever he was, did not show up, when suddenly the door opened and in came a crowd of people, composed of deputy sheriffs and wives of deputy sheriffs and the sheriff's wife and daughters.

The sheriff did not know whether to put his hands up or beat it through a window, but the onslaught was so well managed that he was surrounded before he had time to get a warrant on a charge of surprise.

Under Sheriff Iman did the presentation honors in that pleasant way he has. He said a lot of nice things about the sheriff, telling him that the deputies felt an earnest appreciation of his courteous and considerate management of the affairs of the office, and therefore they—Iman reached toward his hip pocket just as though he was going to draw a gun. It was a motion Jackson had seen before. He looked about, and saw he was among friends. He decided not to make any attempt to draw his gun the quicker. It wasn't a gun Iman drew. It was a jeweler's case, in which there snuggled a handsome gold badge.

The manner in which the sheriff responded was all that could be desired. His thanks came straight from his heart.

The ladies of the gathering were shown some of the inside workings of the sheriff's office, including the "lookout book," the rogue's gallery pictures and the fingerprint system.

RESULT OF FALL OFF BICYCLE, BOY HAS LIMBS PARALYZED

Fullerton Tribune: George Bay, the 16-year-old son of Charles Bay of West Anaheim had a severe backwards, about two years ago, having been struck by a bicycle, fell, striking on the back of his head, upon the hard ground.

Three or four months later his limbs from the hips down became paralyzed. He was unable to use his limbs, laid in bed for months. Medical aid has failed to relieve the patient's sufferings. Several weeks ago, after treatment of a specialist, while sitting on a chair at home, he fell, pelled to stand erect and succeeded in walking around a table unassisted.

The young man was overjoyed thinking perhaps he was getting well and tears came to his eyes as he tried to his father concerning his ability to walk again. But relief was only temporary. Again for weeks he was unable to help himself. Then late one bright sunny day, the unfortunate lad arose from a chair and walked upon the porch, unassisted, and as the boy was overjoyed with thinking divine providence had come to his relief.

We, however, could not again enter the house and had to be carried into the room. Since then there has been no indication of his recovery and his parents are distracted, think that perhaps their boy may remain a cripple for life. The young man gets about on crutches, but his limbs are withered, and small hope is entertained for his complete recovery.

but there will also be a choice lot of songsters, pigeons and rabbits. Arrangements are being made to display a few chickens of the full grown varieties.

B. F. Keuchel of Orange returned

COMPARATIVE HONESTY

Indianapolis News
A storekeeper in an up-state city in New York recently decided to invest $2.50 in an "honesty test" of his customers. He took for the purpose twenty-five dimes and passed them out one dime excess change. Seven men and one woman pocketed the change unaccounted. Four men and two women returned the extra change, and eleven persons counted the change and kept the dime. That particular city may be unusual, or the storekeeper may have a peculiar type of trade.

All people are relatively honest.
Even the market standholder who stacks his apples, defrauding the customer out of two or three, is relatively honest. Pressed for an explanation —and incidentally for three more apples—he avoids the delicate point of law by insisting that he was selling his apples by number and not by measure. Some of these standholders would no sooner think of short-changing a customer than the customer would of returning an extra dime, if such a windfall should ever come to him. Honesty is a peculiar thing.

Along the northern border, Canadian silver is current. But down here Canadian dimes and quarters cause much annoyance. The dime may pass current, but the quarter can generally be redeemed at the banks for only 20 cents. And who wants to lose a nickel? No one accepts a Canadian quarter or dime if he knows it. But if one should by any means be passed on us, do we hesitate to pass it along?
A spurious coin enjoys a lively circulation.

The United States government now intends to exercise its control over the weights and measures of the country.
On authority of a bill which has just passed Congress, a standard barrel is to be set up. Henceforth there is to be only one "barrel," and it can contain only a certain quantity. The inference is that barrels have been of numerous sizes. Dishonesty has found ample opportunity in weights and measures. Even now, with standards in all the states—and at Washington—it creeps in. The ratio of "honest" purchasers in that New York city was apparently 14 to 11. The reason for this perversion of morals is to be found, of course, in the "other fellows" dishonesty. Each one of us is honestest than his brother. The world ever was thus.

EAT LESS MEAT

IF BACK HURTS

Take a Glass of Salts to Flush Kidneys if Bladder
Bothers You

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region;
rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine.
This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone;
makes a delightful effervescent lithiawater drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

MEXICAN DIES UNDER TRAIN

Jose Morea, a Mexican aged 19, was instantly killed at Fullerton this afternoon as he was attempting to board a stated that he has no relatives in this country and that the accident was the boy's fault.

THE AVOCADO IS BOTH A FRUIT AND A FOOD

In an address at the recent convention of the California Association of Nurserymen at San Diego, Mr. Peter Bisset, plant introducer of the United States Department of Agriculture, said in part regarding the Avocado:

"It is a discussion that I have been very much interested in for some years, doing what I could to interest people to plant these trees both in California and in Florida.

"It is not only a fruit—it is a food, and I think we will have to place it among the food products.

"As for the market, I might tell you of a visit I made to a commission dealer in San Francisco about one year ago. When I enter a city I like to go into the markets and see what fruits are on the stands. I dropped into a commission dealer's place of business and found a shipment of Avocados from the Island of Tahiti, just in that morning. There were forty boxes and each box contained four dozen fruits which sold inside of two hours at from $3.00 to $5.00 per dozen, wholesale; and, from the figures given today in regard to the yield, you can readily see that there are going to be fortunes made in the cultivation of the Avocado.
When I hear of a man selling his crop from one tree for something like $3,000, I don't think that when you multiply that by 50, a man would be very foolish to try it; and I believe that for the next twenty years probably the Avocado will pay a very much larger profit than you are now receiving from your citrus crop, and to all living in a section where the Avocado can be grown, I would advise you to plant them."

HAPPENINGS IN ROME

BY ALICE ROHE

ROME, Jan. 10.—(By Mail to New York), Feb. 3.—The return home of Prince Von Bulow, ambassador from Germany to Rome, has brought more than diplomatic difficulties into the beautiful Villa Malta, home of the Von Bulows, in Via Porta Pinciana.

The coming of Prince Von Bulow, who has taken the place of German Ambassador Von Ploow, has, of course, aroused much comment concerning Germany's subtlety in returning a man to Italy who has always shown so marked a love for Rome.

Comment, however, has not told of the private and social sorrows of the Von Bulows who do not hesitate to say how sad a home-coming this return to Villa Malta has been.

Before the war Princess Von Bulow claimed as her three most intimate friends Lady Rodd, wife of Sir Ren-nell Rodd, British Ambassador, Madame Barrere, wife of the French Ambassador, and Madame Krupinski, wife of the Russian Ambassador. The first ones to greet the Princess on her return home after various absences always were the ladies of the now antagonistic ambassadors. Now these old-time friends can see each other no more, for they are the wives of representatives of warring nations.

The Von Bulow motor no longer hurries through the Via Porta Pinciana on its way to carry the Princess for an informal visit with Madame Barrere, nor does the equipage of Lady Rodd pass through the great iron gates of Villa Malta as in former days when these two dear friends met to talk over affairs on most intimate terms. The Russian ambassadorial doors are closed to the wife of Prince Von Bulow and the four old friends who made so interesting a quartet in Roman diplomatic life now form a trio.

That the wives of the belligerent countries' ambassadors feel this estrangement which has crushed beneath the iron hand of international enmity those tender ties of the individual, is known to all the friends of these erstwhile companions.

The fact that the Princess Von Bulow is an Italian adds to the unhappy situation of this return home. For Princess Von Bulow was the Princess Campanella, stepdaughter through her mother's second marriage, of the famous Marco Mangiotti. And the real home of the Von Bulows since the return of the Prince as German Ambassador has been at Rome, in the historic Villa Malta, where kings have lived and where, in the eighteenth century, the notorious Calgiostro in the midst of wealth and luxury performed his charlatan feats of necromancy. The Villa Malta, called the Villa of Roses, because of the gorgeous and exquisite riot of roses which cover the walls along the Via Porta Pinciana, has been the scene of many brilliant diplomatic receptions; where the Sicilian Princess, wife of the German Prince, has been one of the most gracious hostesses in all Rome.

Now the personal joy of sincere friendship has been removed from whenever diplomatic functions over which the Princess will preside. For the absence of Lady Rodd, of Madame Barrere, of Madame Krupinski, has left a deep wound in Princess Von Bulow's cordial and sympathetic nature.

The only ambassador's home in which the Princess may visit at present is that of the American Embassy.
Indeed the Princess already has been to call upon Mrs. Thomas Nelson Page and Mrs. Page returned the call the next day. For with the Japanese, the Spanish, the Austrian Embassies presided over by solitary men (the wife of the Austrian Ambassador is an invalid in Vienna) the Princess Von Bulow herself is quite alone in these days when war has severed personalities.

Almost the first call made by Prince Von Bulow after his official call upon the King of Italy was upon the wife of the American Ambassador. And to Mrs. Page this great man of Germany talked of the sadness which this war has brought into the lives of old-time friends.

Nor has the Prince been reticent about expressing his sorrow to them about these severed social relations.
The other day a meeting between Sir Rennell Rodd, and Prince Von Bulow took place in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in the presence of Ambassador Page. Both men, representatives of those two bitter national enemies, old-time friends and good friends, looked at each other but they did not speak.
Sir Rennell Rodd confessed afterwards his desire to take Von Bulow by the hand as in the old days, but he was afraid. "And so was Von Bulow afraid of you," commented Ambassador Page, who has watched the two old friends depart as strangers.

"This war is not a war among friends—it is worse, it is a war among brothers."

So many things have been predicted of the coming of Von Bulow to Rome that it is only natural to trace to his influence all signs of pro-German and anti-English sentiments which have arisen. Indeed the past few days a decided anti-English line of comment has been heard in certain diplomatic circles. Whether or not the subtle Von Bulow is responsible, gossip which, unlike the proverbial rolling stone, gathers much insidious moss on its way, says that England is storing up future trouble for herself by her interference with commerce. The interference of the name of America into the matter, the report that America resents England's interference with her commerce by stopping vessels, the upholding of merchant marines—is a story heard with growing frequency. That England will "show her hand" inevitably in this sea dominance, the story circulated is regarded by the English in Rome as the Mephis-tophelian workings of Von Bulow.
The revised proverb heard in many circles when Von Bulow was said to bring Trentina as a gift to Italy for
ware of Germans bringing gifts."

That the anti-English sentiments should have a corresponding anti-German reaction is only natural and this has been manifested at the Cos-tanz where Gottfried Wagner, night of the opera an anti-German demonstration was arranged but the plans did not materialize. The third night of this famous Wagnerian music drama the demonstration was perfected, but there were so few people in the Cos-tanz that it was passed over.

That Rome is a veritable hotbed of animosities for and against various belligerents has become more evident.

EQUALIZE THE TERMS OF CONTRACT

By its decision in the case of the state of Kansas versus a railway superintendent charged with violation of a state law forbidding employers to condition employment on refusal to join a labor organization, the federal supreme court majority has traversed a considerable body of state legislation enacted during the last twenty years. Steady pressure on legislators by organized labor has tended to create for it special exemptions from provisions of state law otherwise binding on all citizens. Evidently a majority of the justices, noting this trend and its workings in federal as well as state legislation, have decided to make clear beyond peradventure "that there cannot be one rule of liberty for the labor organization or its members, and a different and more restrictive rule for employers" without substantially altering the democratic basis of the national fabric. The legitimacy of the labor organization, its right to exist and to define the terms of its own membership, are reaffirmed. It may decree that it will not admit men to its membership who will work with non-union labor; but it cannot, says the court, forbid an individual or a corporation from making employment conditional on non-unionism. The power which the trades union claims for itself it must concede to the employer.

When the text of the majority and minority opinions is available it will be possible to comment more surely upon some of the secondary consequences of this important decision, which, together with the recent decree ordering the Danbury hatters' union to pay damages for pecuniary losses caused by a trade boycott, will go far toward checking some of the more radical tendencies of contemporary labor legislation. One or two results of the summons to business men by the court to a return to something like equality of privilege where there has been an effort by either employers or employees to secure special rights, may be expected. There will be more certainty in legislators' actions that have become doubtful under pressure from above or below; and there will be renewal of the debate by critics of such decisions over judicial authority to set aside legislation on the ground of its unconstitutionality. In other words, in some quarters the supreme court's latest decisions are likely to be termed reactionary.

The moderate opinion of citizens that still prefer a republican and representative form of democracy is, we think, sure to back the court in its recall of people to earlier conceptions of equality and justice. Having no sympathy with a class or caste system of society, especially one based on economic differences, the United States has reason to watch with vigilance all beginnings of new forms of special legislation. If the supreme court challenges such partial points of view, it only lives up to its oath of duty.—Christian Science Monitor.

THE RECOGNITION OF HEROISM

The annual award has just been made of Carnegie hero fund medals and prizes. It is a significant phase of this work that of the forty-four acts of heroism, thirteen of the heroes lost their lives. They took desperate chances. Most of the heroes are young men and women, indicating that persons with older heads and more prudence do not take these risks. Apparently the recipients of these prizes are mostly obscure persons. As the people who do things are little given to talk, it is probable that they would attract less than the average amount of attention. A man capable of these generous acts has large possibilities for service. The result of giving these awards must be larger openings in the world for young people possessing fine qualities, who otherwise might remain in the background unnoticed.

The larger part of the heroic acts thus noticed result from some one's carelessness. If people kept out of deep water until they could swim well, if they were cautious about fire, if they kept off thin ice, few people would have to risk their lives to save others from peril. Many would-be rescuers would today be alive.

Acts of heroism are performed in every locality for which no recognition is ever made. Physicians, nurses, and others who care for contagious diseases, firemen who venture into burning shells of buildings, police who hunt out criminals from dark hiding places, are heroes to whom no medals are ever given. The fact that such acts are a part of the service for which people in a certain profession are paid, does not detract from their generous quality.

The annual distribution of handsome rewards through the Carnegie commission is thus a fine act of service. Also it might well be wished that more recognition could be given, and more gratitude should be felt, for those daily acts of daring service that are constantly being performed around us in the ordinary callings of life.

REGISTERING THE UNEMPLOYED

It is a good idea to have the unemployed register. It will test the genuineness of those who say they want work, and be the means of helping many really deserving. It will, on the other hand, aid the police in ridding the city of loafers who litter vacant lots and lie around for mischief. It will protect the housewife who shrinks from turning a hungry man away by providing temporary protection for him. It will serve notice on every man either to register and go to work or get out of the town.—San Jose Mercury Herald.

Foundation Stones for Agricultural Success

[NOTE—"What are the fundamental principles of successful agriculture?" This is one of a series of articles answering that question. "In these brief summaries different experts of the faculty of the College of Agriculture of the University of California have set forth succinctly the basic principles of their various specialties.]

8.—FEEDING FARM ANIMALS

By F. W. Woll, Professor of Animal Nutrition in the University of California.

Feeding stuffs contain three groups of components of special importance in the feeding farm animals: 1. Protein; 2. Carbohydrates and fat, and, 3. Mineral matter.

Protein is required by the animal for making muscle and body substances of similar composition.

Carbohydrates and fat supply energy for the production of body heat and fat and for work.

Mineral matter is necessary for the building of the bone structure and for supplying ash materials in milk and other animal products.

Farm animals should receive rations containing all three groups of feed components, but the proportions of each will vary according to the kind and age of animals kept, and the character and cost of the available feeds.

Young or growing animals, cows, sheep, and poultry, require a larger proportion of protein in their feed than full-grown, fattening, or working animals.

Letter From the Seat of War

[Staff Correspondence of the United Press]

PARIS, Jan. 3. (By Mail to New York.)—At Rheims, while lunching, I sent the twelve-year-old son of the hotel proprietress across the street to buy some postcard pictures of the badly damaged town. While he was making the selection, a German shell fell and exploded almost in the middle of the street making an infernal racket. A few minutes later the lad returned with the postcards. Was he out of breath and all eagerness to tell the strange foreigner about the shell which had fallen near him? Not at all.

"I'm sorry sir," he said, quite as he would have done had he merely waited for a street car to pass instead of the smoke of a shell to clear up, "they are out of Cathedral cars. Perhaps I can find you some down the street, there is another place down there."

I thought of the shells and told the boy to never mind. "Think of it! A boy so used to shells falling in his street that they have ceased to be a subject for comment."

Later on, that same day, a small boy in the streets of Rheims brought me a piece of shell, still hot, which had fallen near him. Being of the gamin type, with wits sharpened by his years, he asked me if I would care to buy his piece of hot shell as a souvenir.

Then there was another boy. This youngster paraded past the cathedral at the height of the bombardment, while from various quarters near him came the s-h-e-e-e of big shells and the bang of their explosion loud as the keenest crack of lightning. He carried between his two hands a pan of milk which he balanced more gingerly, taking very short steps to keep from jarring the liquid over the pan's edges. He was well dressed and clean-looking and his face was the rose-pink of well-cared-for boys, boys adored of their mothers.

S-h-e-e-e-e! A shell hissed obtrusively overhead. BANG! came the explosion not more than two squares from the boy with the milk. He stopped, and looked around as if to see if he was being watched. Then he slowly raised the pan to his lips and took a little drink. Just as slowly he lowered it and began his careful march homeward, past the statue of Jeanne d'Arc and the House of God and on down in the direction of the canal.

Two minutes after he had passed the statue, a shell came directly between the towers of the cathedral, barely cleared the head of the Maid of Orleans's horse and tore a great hole in the Belgian blocks thirty feet in front. At the moment the boy was having further refreshments from his pan.

"You're going to lose that milk if you don't mind," I said to the lad from my position in a doorway. He had not seen me before and he looked up sheepishly, realizing he had been cheating mother. Then he grinned a perfectly honest, wholesome grin and replied with a good-little-devil look out of the corner of his blue eyes: "The pan's too full!"

The last I saw of him was taking gingerly steps homeward with a pan less full, but fuller of stomach, utterly unafraid.

LAST OF 'PATRONAGE'

Santa Barbara Press

The policy of reform has so far permeated state affairs that it is more than probable that the forty-first legislative session will see the last of the "patronage" pie that is allotted to state senators and assemblymen. Practically everything else in the line of state employment is under civil service, and there is a growing demand that this be hereafter included in the same provision.

Yet the preceding assembly had the temerity to ask that the daily appropriation for attaches be increased from $500 to $600. The people very wisely voted down the measure. They would have done better to cut it to $300, and insist upon proper qualifications. There are more than a dozen assistant sergeants-at-arms standing in each other's way, and glad when someone gives them a task to relieve the monotony. There are stenographers drawing $5 a day who are not worth quarter the money. Then there are others who are capable, and who make some pretense of earning their pay. Some of the employees are quite necessary and are paid none too much, but others are absolutely unnecessary, and are there solely because of political pull.

The condition is one that discredits the state. It may be said with truth that there has been a gradual improvement during recent years, but the root of the trouble has not been reached. Civil service and an application of the business principles that otherwise obtain in state administration comprise the cure that should be no longer withheld. The existing legislature is big enough and broad enough to reform itself in this respect.

P.-T. ANNIVERSARY

Spurgeon School Association Celebrates Second Year of Successful Work

The meeting of the Spurgeon Parent-Teacher Association was called to order by the president, Mrs. Norton. A violin solo by Edith Fisher of the Sixth grade, accompanied by Mr. Garstang was enjoyed. They responded to an encore, after which the business meeting was held. Special vote of thanks was given to Mr. Pomeroy, who has sold forty-seven tickets to the entertainment, given last Friday evening.

A quartet from the Sixth grade, Donald Knight, La Verne Manning, Violet Cook and Ralph Barker, accompanied by Miss Lilley gave a very pleasing musical number. Miss Wyant, head of the English department of the Polytechnic high school gave a very interesting and beneficial paper on "Reading in the Home." Kenneth and Donna Horton, former pupils of Spurgeon school, favored the audience with a violin and piano duet which was very good. They responded to an encore.

Mr. Cranston welcomed the parents and teachers to the second anniversary of the association, after which a social time was enjoyed. A large cake graced by two candles was brought in to be cut by the president and each person received a piece of the birthday cake, served with delicious coffee, and other home-made cakes.

All declared the afternoon a very pleasant one despite the rain, and wished the association many more happy birthdays.

Amphion Circle Meets

The ladies of the Amphion Circle held a merry meeting yesterday at the home of Mrs. Nat Neff, 1036 West Fifth street. Mrs. F. C. Rowland presided over the business meeting and plans were made for the serving of the Brotherhood dinner, next Wednesday evening. The members also decided to comply with the request of the Spanish teacher, to take charge of the Spanish reading room one night each week.

As the company chatted over needlework Mrs. Berry McPhee gave several beautiful piano selections, her cunning little dimpled daughter, "Joy," being the center of attraction during the entire afternoon. Delicious refreshments were served and the ladies departed to meet next time at their "Dollar Social," when each lady will donate a dollar to the Amphion Circle fund and tell in rhyme how she earned it.

Mrs. W. B. Dennis of Orange was a guest of the society, at yesterday's meeting.

N. M. U. Club

Miss Lurline Ukey proved to be an ideal hostess last evening when she entertained the members of the N. M. U. Club at her home, 200 South Sycamore street.

Embroidery work, crochet and tatting whiled away the social hours and the girls also enjoyed an exciting game involving the use of letters.

A dainty little supper was served at a late hour, the dining table being prettily centered with a cut glass basket filled with golden nasturtiums.

Miss Ruby Ley was a welcome guest of the club at this meeting, attended by every member save one who was absent on account of illness.

Musical Recital

A recital will be given tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Miss Carolyn Haughton, 429 South Sycamore street, when a group of her small pupils will take part in the musical program.

The general public is invited to attend.

ALTAR SOCIETY

Members Plan to Celebrate Silver Jubilee of Priesthood of Rev. Father Eummelen

The members of the Altar Society of Saint Joseph's Catholic church enjoy many delightful social hours together, in loyal service, and yesterday they held one of these enjoyable meetings at the home of Mrs. J. A. Maag of Fairhaven avenue, the ladies making the trip in automobiles.

The company found the beautiful home decorated with a profusion of lovely violets and here the ladies industriously spent the hours sewing carpet bags under the gay directions of the "official rug maker" of the society, Mrs. R. R. Shafer.

Over their needlework, the ladies made plans for the silver jubilee celebration to be held March 2, the date which marks the twenty-fifth year of the priesthood of their beloved pastor, Rev. Father H. Eummelen, who was an honored guest at this meeting.

As a reward for their faithful work the hostess invited all to gather around the dining table where a cut glass bowl of exquisite long-stemmed violets formed the centerpiece. Clusters of these fragrant beauties marked the place of each guest and a mound of luscious golden oranges was shared with the admiring guests by the hostess, who said the fruit was not only to look pretty but to be eaten.

After an appetizing repast of sandwiches, cake and coffee had been enjoyed, the company disbanded, accepting the gracious invitation of Mesdames R. R. Shafer and L. M. Doyle, who will entertain the society at its next meeting to be held at the Shafer home. The meeting day of this society has been changed from Thursday to Wednesday.

Those who enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Maag were Mesdames Wallace, Forbes, C. V. Davis, R. R. Shafer, L. M. Doyle, F. J. Wagner, Clyde Holt, John Rudolph, Horace Fine, G. W. Young, Louise Waite, Chas. Schmiedberg, H. G. Nair, Karl Klat, P. Owens, Joseph Young, H. E. Dieker, E. Dieker, Thomas Keefe, Oelke, Charles Bevis, John Maag, Misses Magrudy, Mulligan, Clarice Keefe, Anna Oelke, Ruth Bevis, Mary Maag and Rev. Father H. Eummelen.

Will Honor Patriots

A meeting of more than usual interest was held at the G. A. R. hall yesterday when the W. R. C. met, with a very large attendance. The corps was complimented by having visitors from Portland, Ore., Mrs. Henicely and Mrs. Godshall; Mrs. Wagner from Anaheim, and Mrs. Emma Sweetman of Detroit, Minn.

The relief committee reported seventy-six calls made, and the death of a sister member, Mrs. Havens. The corps also decided to hold the next tea on Friday afternoon, February 12. The program at that time will be patriotic, including readings, dialogues and special singing, the celebration being in honor of three of our country's patriots, Washington, Lincoln and McKinley. The public is most cordially invited to attend.

C. E. F. L. Embroidery Club

The C. E. F. L. Embroidery Club held one of its most delightful meetings yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Ralph Williams on West Third street. Mrs. Williams has been the victim of a severely sprained ankle and her friends were glad to find that the sprain was rapidly improving, though yet demanding the use of crutches.

Delicious refreshments were served during the gay social hours, those present being Mrs. C. W. Ruland of Patchogue, N. Y., a guest of the club; Mrs. Clyde Deardorf, Mrs. Leon Combs, Mrs. Arthur Martin, Mrs. Leora Harris, Mrs. Ralph Williams and Misses Alma Cox and Helene McNeill.

In so far as possible the director keeps in constant touch with the work and progress of each Conservatory pupil.

Frequent teachers' meetings are held and each pupil's work is thoroughly discussed, suggestions are given concerning same, and nothing is left undone to obtain the best results possible.

Sometimes a pupil is changed from one teacher to another when it seems best. The usual disadvantage of this is obviated in that there follows no change of method.

CLARENCE A. GUSTLIN, Director.
504½ N. Main St. Phone 214.

DELIGHTFUL LUNCHEON

Mrs. S. M. Davis and Mother, Mrs. H. P. Keith, Complimented With Pretty Affair

Mesdames J. G. Quick and C. W. Burns yesterday shared the pleasure of "entertaining" a few congenial friends at a delightful luncheon given at the attractive French street apartments of Mrs. Quick. The pretty affair complimented Mrs. S. M. Davis and her mother, Mrs. H. P. Keith, who is visiting here from Minneapolis, Minn.

Violets and waxen hyacinths had been chosen for floral decorations and a cut glass bowl of these pretty flowers graced the center of the dining table, where hand-painted cards in violet design, marked the places of Mesdames Keith, Davis, E. M. Nealey, E. B. Burns, P. J. Jayne, John Wehrly, Theo. Winbiger, J. E. Gowen, F. M. Grigsby, J. M. Raugh, J. G. Quick and C. W. Burns. The tints of the violet and cream color scheme prevailed throughout the serving of the appetizing four-course luncheon.

Conversation and needlework were the afternoon diversions and the guests were highly pleased with this opportunity of becoming better acquainted with the charming Minnesota visitor who has won many admiring friends during her three-months' stay in Santa Ana.

Interesting Wedding

One of the pretty home weddings of February occurred Wednesday evening, when Miss Leola Clem, daughter of Mrs. F. A. Clem, 616 West Fourth street, became the winsome bride of C. W. Boggs, the ceremony being performed by Judge J. B. Cox.

Calla lilies and ferns prettily decorated the house and, after the ceremony the wedding party enjoyed entertainment at Clune's, returning to the home of the bride for refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Codling, S. M. Babcock, Mrs. F. A. Clem and Ervin Clem were members of the wedding party and, last night, the newly weds were complimented with a serenade by a charivari crowd, calling at a late hour to pay due respects.

The bride, who has been an employee at Gilbert's, is a very popular young woman and the groom, manager of the Wm. F. Lutz garage, is one of Santa Ana's highly respected young business men. Good wishes for health, wealth and happiness are extended to the young couple from their hosts of admiring friends.

Entertained Glee Clubs

Miss Helen Stanley, assisted by her sister Miss Jane, entertained the two high school glee clubs last evening at her home, 418 West Second street.

After the regular practice, the company enjoyed a social hour, during which delicious punch and wafers were served.

Members of the club, with Miss Eley as director and Miss Emily West as pianist, are: Misses Isabel Anderson, Dorothy Meade, Ramona Cleveland, Gladys Stearns, Constance German, Mauden Buell, Helen Haskins, Carol Van Cleave, Ruth Schroeder, Eunice Jones, Mary Crozier, Arvilla Ball, Stella Hupp, Marie Harris, Helen Remsburg, Mildred Murphy, Helen Stanley, Amy Larsen, Helen Van Allen, Leila Heil, Audrey Pond, and Helen Phillips; Messrs. ## CHILDHOOD DAYS

Lad Made Happy by Beautiful Birthday Party Given by Loving 'Aunties'

Yesterday was a "red letter day" in the life calendar of little Harold Juell, grand-son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Guitzweiler of East Eleventh street. The day marked the seventh birthday of this little lad and in honor of this important event his three loving aunts, Misses Marie, Elsie and Edith Guitzweiler, gave a beautiful birthday party, shared with his favorite playmates and friends of Lincoln school.

A peanut hunt entertained the little folks, who entered into this play with a zest that soon filled their hunting bags with these "goodies." Little Miss Helen Hervey and Edmund Murphy, the two foremost hunters, winning the pretty valentines as their reward.

During an exciting game of drop the handkerchief, the children were called to the birthday spread, marching two by two through the bed-room of the honoree's fond grandmother, who has been an invalid for many years. The sight of the bright little faces proved to be very cheering to the patient "sick-a-bed lady," who also enjoyed watching Harold unwrap his many pretty birthday gifts.

Peals of delight came from the little folks when they entered the darkened dining room, illuminated by gas. Saint Valentine had been honored in decorations, his significant emblems in every size being strewn over the snowy table cover, while streamers of brilliant red floated gaily from the chandeliers to the corners of the table. Cuddling Cupids were also suspended on streamers of red ribbon over the pretty table, centered with a bowl of scarlet geraniums. Charming little heart-shaped candy cups, the handiwork of the clever trio of hostesses, marked the place of each little guest, these favors being filled to the brim with candy hearts. A mound of shining red apples, the gift of F. C. Blauer to Master Harold, was also shared with his friends.

After the lovely birthday cake, with its seven gleaming candles, had been cut and served with delicious ice cream, Mr. Fred Rafferty took a flash-light picture of the birthday table, for the grandmother, who missed this treat of seeing the happy crowd enjoying the birthday spread.

Among the little folks present were Dorothy Pease, Phyllis Hill, Lola Baer, Marjorie Blauer, Cornelia Murphy, Helen Hervey, Dorothy Clarkson, Helen Bowers, Malcolm Isaacson, Julian Bear, Stanley Alexander, Harvey O'Pase, Edmund Murphy, Tommy Hill, Philip Lasorella and Joe Buckley.

AMUSEMENTS

Rowland & Clifford's big LaSalle Opera House (Chicago) success is coming in all its glory. Girls? Well, we should say so. Cute! Good looking! Good voices! Dancers of the tango and hesitation waltz kind! A large bunch of principals well-known to the music-loving public and identified with all big musical comedy successes. Julian Rubell, Grace Childers, George Dayton, Russell Price, and others.

The music is of the catchy, whistling kind that sends you home in a joyful mood. Among the many songs hit sung only in "September Morn" are:

"When a Little Boy Loves a Little Girl."
"In Berlin."
"Oh, You September Morn."
"Everybody's Tango Crazy."
"A Spare-Rib from the Butcher Shop of Life."
"Beautiful Dreams I'm Dreaming."
"The Sun-Shade Girl."
"Where is the Pleasure in Wine and Song if the Woman is Not There?"

Summing it all up, "September Morn" is a great big musical show that goes with a bang and a rush, put together to amuse. A company of 50 is underlined to play at the Grand Opera House on Monday, February 8.

Dustin Farnum in "Cameo Kirby"

Presented by The Jesse L. Lasky Feature Play Co. To Be Shown at the Temple Theater. One of the most notable film productions ever made in this country is the picture version of "Cameo Kirby," perhaps the most important Broadway success ever written by Booth Tarkington and Harry Leon Wilson, which is offered by the Jesse L. Lasky Feature Play Company, with Dustin Farnum in the title role.

"Cameo Kirby" is a romance of the South in the days before the war, with love as its main motive and with incidents which include many exciting adventures.

For the character like that of "Cameo Kirby," there is only one supreme American artist—and the name of that artist is Dustin Farnum. With all the physical charm so indispensable in such a character, and with the experience of almost innumerable romantic successes, he brings to the interpretation of such a romantic role a finesse and knowledge of the art which cannot be duplicated.

Dustin Farnum in "Cameo Kirby" is bound to be an even greater attraction than Dustin Farnum in "The Virginian" or "The Squaw Man," and will be shown for three days at the Temple Theater, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week.

IN THE JUSTICE COURT

WHO'S TO PAY FOR UNIFORMS
OF DRIVERS?

Churchill Says Perry Taylor
Ordered Them; Taylor Says
His Men Must Dig Up

Sixteen uniforms made for Perry Taylor's jitney bus drivers are the subject of a trial before Justice Cox and six jurors today, and a real interesting trial it is proving.

C. D. Churchill, who represents a Chicago tailor of some kind, is the plaintiff and Taylor is the defendant. Taylor says he ought not to be the defendant. He says Churchill is suing the wrong person.

It seems that Taylor thought it would be a nice thing if each of his drivers had a uniform. His drivers were of the same opinion. Churchill's solicitor was dead sure they were right. So an agreement was reached whereby sixteen suits should be made at $20.70 apiece.

Taylor put up the $5 a suit advance payment, and Churchill says he looked to no one else for the rest of the money. Taylor says Churchill is away off the jitney track. He says his men were to pay for the suits, not he. They were to pay $3 a week. The gist of Taylor's defense is that Churchill ought to be suing sixteen different people, some of them still jitney drivers and some of them ex-jitney drivers.

The attorneys are going at the thing with legal blood in their eyes.

Churchill is represented by Attorneys G. H. Scott and Wallace W. Davis of Santa Ana, while Taylor's fight is being waged relentlessly by Attorney L. S. Thomas of Los Angeles.

Things warmed up considerably this morning, and it took all of the court's dignity to hold down the lid. In fact, the dignity almost had a spill when Judge Cox declared he had never heard such a blankable case, and again when he threatened to consider the advisability of sending someone across the alley.

ADD A THIRD STORY TO BRICK STRUCTURE

Anaheim Plain Dealer: Along prospective building lines comes now the announcement from the Odd Fellows Hall Association that a third story will shortly be added to the Odd Fellows Hall—at present a two-story brick structure, and one of the finest business buildings in the city.

Although plans have not yet been adopted for the improvement, decision has nevertheless been made by the Hall Association to add the third story.

Along with addition of the third floor will go the improvement of setting the building back from the front property line, thereby giving a greater width for sidewalk purposes.

Other buildings which are billed for early construction in the business district will be for Carroll Bros., Dr. Cassou, F. A. Yungbluth and Dr. Houck.

A FINE BUILDING AT BEACH CHANGES HANDS

Huntington Beach News: H. J. Beggs, a capitalist of San Bernardino, has acquired title to the Steck building, on Main street, now occupied by Carl Olson, the furniture man, and Jackson's Candy Shop. Mr. Beggs is to be congratulated, as this is the finest building in Huntington Beach, best constructed of white enamel brick and artificial stone, and has a Main street frontage of fifty feet, and is 112 feet in length. Mr. Beggs is the father-in-law of Leonard Obarr, the druggist, and Mr. Obarr states that as soon as the sewer system is installed the second story will be completed.

AT THE COURTHOUSE

PAPER FAULTY,
REA IS FREED

Commitment Used Word Santa
Ana Instead of San Juan;
Writ Issued Today

Because a commitment to jail was found to be faulty, Charles Rea today went forth from court a free man. He served only about a quarter of a thirty-day sentence.

Rea lives at San Juan Capistrano. A short time ago Constable Jack Combs undertook to quiet Rea when Rea was not in a quieting mood, and there ensued a mix-up in which the constable was more or less battered and Rea more or less subdued. Rea was taken before Justice Daneri of San Juan township, and there a sentence of thirty days in jail was pronounced upon Rea. Combs put the man in jail.

Attorney Wallace Davis went before Judge West and started habeas corpus proceedings, declaring that some mistakes had been made that would give Rea his freedom if heard by the court. This morning at 9 o'clock Sheriff Jackson had Rea in court. Attorney Wallace pointed out that in sending Rea to jail, Justice Daneri had used a commitment blank printed for Santa Ana township, and the word Santa Ana had not been crossed out and the word San Juan written in. Deciding that the commitment was thus faulty, Judge West discharged the prisoner.

On Mechanic's Lien
The Griffith Lumber Co. of Anaheim has started action on a mechanic's lien for $360.78 against Herbert F. Clark and George Whitsell. A thirty-six-acre ranch is involved. Leonard Evans is attorney for the plaintiff.

Seeks Settlement
R. K. Torrens with S. M. Davis as his attorney has brought an action against Walter C. Rowell. The complaint alleges that on July 8, 1913, the plaintiff entered into an agreement to sell 9.8 acres at Yorba to George M. Wright for $10,000. Wright sold the contract to Rowell after $1000 had been paid. Nothing has been paid since that time, and because of delinquent payments the plaintiff asks judgment for $9606.30, or title to the land. In connection with the action Sheriff Jackson attached $142 due Rowell from the Fay Fruit Co.

Settle Estate
Heirs of Judge J. W. Townner have entered into a stipulation for the settlement of the estate, making an arrangement for the interest of Mrs. Townner in the estate.

ILLITERACY IS DOOMED
Sacramento Union

Illiteracy in the United States is doomed. Statistics compiled by the United States Bureau of Education for use at the Panama-Pacific Exposition, show that of children from 10 to 14 years of age there were in 1910 only twenty-two out of every 100 who could neither read nor write. In 1900 there were of the same class forty-two per 100. This reduction in illiteracy is still proceeding at even the same rate, the illiterate children in this country between the ages of 10 to 14, inclusive, now number not more than fifteen out of every 100.

From the standpoint of proportional reduction of illiteracy, Oklahoma leads all the states of the Union. In 1900 this state had 124 illiterate children of the ages named. In 1910 it had but seventeen. Delaware had twenty in 1900, and but four in 1910; New Hampshire reduced from four to one; New Jersey, from seven to two; Missouri from thirty-five to eleven; Montana, from three to one; Oregon, from three to one; Vermont, from six to two; New Mexico, from 182 to sixty-nine, and Idaho, from five to two.

The following states report only one child in 1000 between the ages of 10 and 14 as illiterate: Connecticut, District of Columbia, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Montana, New Hampshire, North Dakota, Oregon, Utah and Washington.

Some of the states have reduced their illiteracy by one-half or a little more. These states are Alabama, California, Colorado, Connecticut, District of Columbia, Kansas, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, North Dakota, Tennessee, Utah and West Virginia.

Only one state, Nevada, has lost ground since 1900. Its illiteracy was then four; in 1910 it was five. Two states, South Dakota and Nebraska, each having the low rate of two per 1000, report no reduction in illiteracy between 1900 and 1910.

The states having the largest proportion of illiterate children per 1000 are Louisiana, with 115 (from 174 in 1900); South Carolina, eighty-three from 150; Alabama, seventy-seven from 157; New Mexico, sixty-nine from 182; North Carolina, sixty-eight from 167; Kentucky, fifty-nine from seventy-nine; Georgia, fifty-seven from ninety-seven; Tennessee, fifty-four from 119; Florida, fifty from seventy-three; Arkansas, forty-seven from 113.

It is evident that the public schools will, in a short time, practically eliminate illiteracy among children. But according to bureau of education officials, there are between 4,000,000 and 5,000,000 of adults that are illiterate

BEAN INDUSTRY MAKES BIG GROWTH

Lima Almost Unknown to County Farmers Eighteen
Years Ago

PROPER IRRIGATION
INCREASES OUTPUT

250,000 Bags Blackeyes is Annual Production in County

The bean is produced from a larger area than the majority of products grown in this state.

The principal varieties are, the lima or butter bean, grown principally in Ventura county and south of that; the Lady Washington and navy beans are grown north of the Tehachapi; the blackeye bean is more universally grown over the state.

There are several varieties of lima beans, the two principal kinds being the vining lima for field production while the bush lima is more for garden purposes and the supplying of green lima beans for the market. The bush limas are a detriment to the field production and in purchasing seed for field planting one should be careful in its selection.

The bush lima bean is a large flat bean while the vining lima bean is oval in shape.

The greatest menace to the vining lima bean is a small flat bean of a chalky appearance called "the popper." These minimize the production by taking the place of a good bean.

These poppers ripen several days before the crop proper is ready for harvesting and through the pods breaking open and dropping their contents, they are a total loss.

Machinery does and can aid in eradicating the popper in the preparation of bean seed for planting but to be sure of its disappearance they must be taken out by hand.

Eighteen years ago the lima bean was scarcely known to Orange county farmers. It was then principally grown in Ventura county. It is the greatest producer today. Up to this time grain was the principal product of the San Juan ranch, which in the year 1914 produced 18,000 acres of these beans.

For dry-land farming no crop is more profitable than the lima bean unless where rainfall is exceedingly limited. The blackeye bean may be more profitable, the 1914 crop of beans producing as much as 18 and 20 sacks per acre with irrigation, which was a remarkable yield and not an average, the average being from 10 to 12 sacks per acre.

Selling at 5 cents a pound is a fair remuneration for the labors of the diligent farmer. In recent years irrigation has been proven a great success in the production of nearly every crop, not in this state alone but in other states of the Union.

Where five sacks were grown without irrigation, twenty-five sacks have been produced where water has been properly applied. In applying water to beans the ground should never be flooded but water should be applied in furrows made between the rows of beans.

The lima bean is planted in rows 32 to 36 inches apart and requires when all beans germinate and grow about an average of 40 pounds per acre for a full stand; however, insects and birds are a menace to this crop, destroying the bean before it is up; and the small shoots upon coming through the ground.

The general planting is done during the month of May and requires from 100 to 120 days for maturing the crop.

The machine used in harvesting the bean is a sled or a two-wheeled vehicle covering two rows and having bolted to it two heavy knives, running two or three inches under the ground, cutting off the top root and throwing the two rows of beans into one row, when men immediately put them into piles. Remaining there two or three weeks or until dry, the thrasher is introduced and separates the bean from the straw.

The straw is valuable as a food-stuff and also a fertilizer. The "Orange Orchardist" claims the lima bean straw is worth $10 per ton spread upon citrus land. This does not mean that the grower should sell the straw for profit, because he should remember that it is profitable to him to keep his soil fertile.

In putting land in the best possible condition for the greatest production of any crop, the plow is a very necessary implement. However, where land is free from all weeds and trash a cultivator can be used to advantage.

In preparing land for beans the land is plowed deep (at least 8 to 10 inches) during the winter months and not later than February. Much cultivation is given it, keeping it free of weeds and producing a deep fine mulch (about four inches in depth) at time of planting. The land is never plowed deep just before planting beans, as the plant will seldom grow well with such preparation.

In leasing land from large well informed land owners the lease demands that a certain portion of the land be planted to beans because this crop fertilizes the soil and renders it in fine condition. The southern counties produce about 3000 acres of blackeyes. They are planted in May and require about 90 days to mature the crop.

Fifteen pounds of seed is required to plant an acre which will produce on an average of from 5 to 15 sacks of beans per acre. The method of harvesting is the same as that used for the lima bean. The bean crop is kept free of weeds by frequent cultivation and hoeing.

Orange county is a factor in the production of this bean, producing approximately 250,000 bags of blackeyes. The Garden Grove district produces a share of this large amount. It is a profitable crop to alternate with even on high-priced land. With the growing of beans the land improves because of the nitrogen which the roots leave in the soil, the nitrogen being taken from the air and deposited in the ground.

Should all Orange county farmers, and especially Garden Grove farmers, alternate with beans their farms would be richer.

TALK NEW CITY HALL AND PARK AT MEETING

Anaheim Herald: A mass meeting of the citizens of Anaheim has been called by the committee appointed to consider the question of a new city hall and park. The committee has made a careful investigation of the question and will have an interesting report to make. The project of a civic center has been endorsed by every member of the committee. A central location can be obtained for this purpose. If the plans of the committee are carried out the block on which the city library is now located will be purchased by the city and some of the property now held will be sold.

The plan will be explained in detail by a local speaker at the mass meeting. The city band has agreed to be present and play a number of selections. This will add considerably to the enjoyment of the evening.

The date for the meeting is Tuesday, February 9, at 7:30 o'clock. The place is the high school auditorium. The committee urges every one to be out whether favoring or opposing the project.

REMOVE POLE LINE FROM CITY STREETS

Anaheim Plain Dealer: The Pacific Telephone Company has a force of men engaged in removing its pole line from the district where the ornamental lighting system is to be installed. The line will be placed in alleys where possible, and where not, under-ground cables will be used.

Work on the lighting system is progressing rapidly and it will not be many weeks until it is completed.

SOME CABBAGE

Fullerton Tribune: J. W. Morgan gets the chompo this year for cabbage production. He has just shipped a full carload from the Garden Grove station direct to Chicago. There were thirteen tons. It was grown on the Morgan ranch.

TO BUILD AT ANAHEIM

Placencia Courier: Mr. Harry Seares, district manager of the Randolph Fruit Co., has traded a 10-acre tract at Terra Bella for a residence in Anaheim opposite the high school and will move there as soon as the home is put up.

OVER HALF MILLION SPENT IN BUILDING

Fullerton, Feb. 5.—Superintendent Hines has reported that in the city of Fullerton between August 28, 1911, and January 1, 1915, there has been paid out here for buildings and alterations a total of $528,488.

HUNTINGTON BEACH VOTES SCHOOL BONDS

Indications Are That School
Bonds Will Arouse Little Opposition

Bonds for the proposed $70,000 grammar school improvement at Huntington Beach will be voted tomorrow. The present plan is to expend about $42,000 on the new building and the remaining sum for real estate and fixtures for the school. Architect J. Flood Walker of Santa Ana conferred with the Huntington Beach school trustees at a special meeting held last Monday night and presented tentative plans and suggestions. The new school, it is planned, will have ten classrooms, a domestic science room and a manual training room.

BUILD ADDITION
Fullerton Tribune: The La Habra Citrus association is preparing to build an addition to its packing house. Work upon the addition, made necessary because of the lack of room, was begun this week.

HOME BUILDING FIRST MONTH

Permits Issued in January at Orange Reach a Total of $7,050

ORANGE, Feb. 5.—Home building was the principal feature of construction work going on in Orange during the first month of 1915. Although the building permits reach a mark that is only medium fair, they reveal the fact that the building of dwelling houses is going forward steadily and actively. January added a half-dozen or so new ones and gave the new year a nice start in that respect.

Permits for the month totaled $7050. They were as follows:

J. E. Webster, dwelling, North Lemon street; $300.

George Baler, dwelling, North Grand street; $1800.

C. M. Cornwall, dwelling, North Grand, dwelling; $1500.

R. D. Stanley, dwelling, North Grand; $700.

Dr. F. L. Chaplin, office, East Chapman; $500.

C. H. Post, dwelling, North Shaffer street; $1000.

K. C. Wright, dwelling, North Cleveland; $1000.

Agricultural Chemical Company, warehouse, North Grant; $350.

TRY THIS IF YOU HAVE DANDRUFF

Or Are Bothered With Falling Hair or Itching Scalp.

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This dissolves it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft and look and feel a hundred times better.

If you want to keep your hair looking rich, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for nothing destroys the hair so quickly. It not only starves the hair and makes it fall out, but it makes it stringy, straggly, dull, dry, brittle and lifeless, and everybody notices it. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

JAP FIGHTS WHITE WIFE'S ATTEMPT TO GET DIVORCE IN ORANGE COUNTY COURTS

Frank T. Kuranaga, a Japanese, declares that his wife, a white woman, is not a resident of Orange county and that she is not entitled to a divorce here.

Concerning the Kuranaga case the Los Angeles Times this morning had the following:

The fate of June Kuranaga, whose father, Frank T. Kuranaga, is a Japanese, and her mother, Deanna, a Caucasian, trembles in the balance. Born in luxury, the great San Francisco fire changed her home conditions and eventually brought about the separation of her parents. Mrs. Kuranaga is now in Orange county, where she has filed suit for divorce, her second endeavor to break the shackles which bind her.

Mr. Kuranaga, stripped of his wealth, which he accumulated as a sea merchant, is now eking out a living as an auctioneer at Redondo Beach. He is resisting his wife's divorce suit. Attorney Wright will represent him before the Santa Ana court and ask for a change of venue to Los Angeles, where a year or so ago Mrs. Kuranaga was denied a decree by Judge Monroe.

ACTIVITY

Anaheim Gazette: Strangers coming into town marvel at the building activity in the business section. Center street, between Los Angeles and Lemon, is receiving substantial improvement. The property lines have been set back eight feet on both sides of the street, and new buildings of the modern class are in contemplation for many of the sites.

PROSPERITY APLENTY

Orange News: Aiming at better delivery service, although their system was one of the most comprehensive in the county, the Ehlen & Grote Company have rearranged their country delivery routes, by placing the close in customers on the city routes, which are served by auto trucks.

In making the change there is no decrease in the number of the company's employees, as Ehlen & Grote will still have thirty-two people connected with the store, the same number employed a year ago.

This fact is interesting and offers an encouraging commentary on the local business situation, for a good many business houses in other sections have been compelled to lay off men during the past year because of slack business. The Ehlen & Grote Company does in fact, employ more men the year round than any other institution of the kind in the country. Of the thirty-two now employed, fifteen are married men with families living here. The company is one of the local business houses of which Orange may well be proud.

FACTORY FOR ORANGE

Orange News: An addition to Orange business circles is announced today with the opening of a mattress factory and furniture upholstering plant in this city.

The new establishment is known as the Orange Upholstering Company. It is located in the Franzen building on North Orange street, in the former quarters of the O. K. tin shop. The building is now being prepared to receive it.

Upholstering, mattress making and furniture repairing are the lines announced by the new concern.

PAVING AT PLACENTIA

Anaheim Gazette: Contractor Huberman began work last Friday on the main business blocks of Placentia, for which he secured the contract for paving. The rain Friday and again Sunday has delayed operations. Work will be rushed as rapidly as the weather permits. Had the weather continued fine, the paving would have been completed in about two weeks.

The completion of the paving is awaited with much eagerness by Placentia residents, as not only will it add 100 per cent to the appearance of the business section, increase value and advertise the town as a live one, but several important new business buildings await its completion.

FIVE-ACRE TRACT SOLD

Huntington Beach News: L. W. Stearns reports the sale of a five-acre tract on the boulevard, just outside the city limits, known as the Dr. Whealen place, to J. P. Howland of this city for a cash consideration of $2600. Mr. Howland will improve this property and make it his future home.

HUNTINGTON BEACH TO PASS ORDINANCE ON BUILDING RULES

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Feb. 5.—After being shelved for some time, the proposed building ordinance has been passed by the city trustees. According to the new ordinance only substantial buildings capable of withstanding fire may be built within two blocks of Main street in either direction, and for two blocks back from Ocean avenue. The ordinance also regulates buildings to be used for moving pictures and other similar purposes.

Thus far no opposition to the proposed school bonds has been developed and it is believed that owing to the urgent necessity for the issue the vote in favor of the bonds will be almost unanimous.

CONTRACT IS LET FOR NEW TWO-STORY BLOCK

Anaheim Plain Dealer: F. A. Yungbluth has let the contract for a two-story building to be erected on the lot adjoining his store. The building which he now occupies will be remodeled and a new front and another story will be added. The new building will set back eight feet and will be of a very attractive nature.

M. W. Martenet has arranged to take the store room where Mr. Yungbluth now has his store and plans to have one of the most up-to-date hardware establishments in the county.

Mr. Yungbluth will move into the new building and will make a great many alterations in his fixtures.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

Citrus fruits are being pushed as much as possible in order to prevent heavy losses by late frosts. All that are consumed now are profit, and at the same time are excellent stock. Oranges are unchanged. Grapefruit is very firm, and limes are up to $1.25 a basket. Tropical fruits are so plentiful that prices are lower than in several seasons. One of the reasons for pushing fruit is the scarcity of good vegetables.

On the market of staples there were few changes. Eggs declined 1½ cents a dozen, the demand being good, but not sufficient to keep the market up.

Facts are Facts

because of anything or conditions that actually exist. The statements we've been making from time to time regarding conditions in the Templeton-Paso Robles district—(climate, fertility of soil, advantageous location as to market and social conditions, rainfall and wide range of products,) have been statements of facts, sometimes disputed by parties who have no knowledge of the facts, or have only made an indifferent investigation, but facts nevertheless.

Our statements of the probable future of the district have, of course, been predictions based upon those facts and our observations of what has taken place in many other meritorious sections of California. Every forecast made by us as to the future of the locality is being more than justified by the happenings of the past two years, at a time too, when development in many localities has been at a standstill or slipping back. Most of the development now being done there, with the exception of an eight million dollar project, is by men from Orange county and other parts of Southern California, mostly men of the hard-headed "show-me" type who know fruit and nut growing and California conditions.

ADD A THIRD STORY TO BRICK STRUCTURE

Anaheim Plain Dealer: Along prospective building lines comes now the announcement from the Odd Fellows Hall Association that a third story will shortly be added to the Odd Fellows Hall—at present a two-story brick structure, and one of the finest business buildings in the city.

Although plans have not yet been adopted for the improvement, decision has nevertheless been made by the Hall Association to add the third story.

Along with addition of the third floor will go the improvement of setting the building back from the front property line, thereby giving a greater width for sidewalk purposes.

Other buildings which are billed for early construction in the business district will be for Carroll Bros., Jno. Cassou, F. A. Yungbluth and Dr. Houck.

A FINE BUILDING AT BEACH CHANGES HANDS

Huntington Beach News: H. J. Beggs, a capitalist of San Bernardino, has acquired title to the Steck building, on Main street, now occupied by Carl Olson, the furniture man, and Jackson's Candy Shop. Mr. Beggs is to be congratulated, as this is the finest building in Huntington Beach, being constructed of white enamel brick and artificial stone, and has a Main street frontage of fifty feet, and is 112 feet in length. Mr. Beggs is the father-in-law of Leonard Oharr, the druggist, and Mr. Oharr states that as soon as the sewer system is installed the second story will be completed.

LOCAL ARCHITECTS PLAN COLTON CHURCH

Architects Eley and Hawley are at work on plans for a $20,000 Presbyterian church at Colton.

SELLS

Orange News: The sporting goods stock of J. P. Boring on South Glass street has been sold to Clyde F. Slater. The deal includes the entire Boring stock, with the exception of electrical fixtures and wiring, in which business Mr. Boring will remain.

The new store will be located in the present quarters of the Shoe Hospital, facing the plaza. The repair shop will be moved to the rear. The store will be re-finished inside and made ready for the transfer of the stock which will take place next week. The stock consists of guns and ammunition, fishing tackle, camping supplies, tents, sporting goods, bicycles and sundries. Mr. Slater will, however, close out the line of bicycles and devote his attention to the other departments of the business.

Contract is Filed

There is recorded at the courthouse a contract from the La Habra Citrus Association to E. M. Wheatland for an addition to the packing house at La Habra. The price is $3490.

GARAGE

Anaheim Gazette: P. H. Krick is just completing a cement store building at the corner of Cypress and Los Angeles streets. Part of it will be used for garage purposes. It will also be a gasoline supply station for passing autos.

Pre-Opening Sale of Lots in Polytechnic Villa Subdivision

We have taken the exclusive selling agency of this subdivision, and for a limited time can offer a small number of lots in this restricted district at a great discount, upon easy payments with low rate of interest. The sewers, water and gas are already in, and these lots will be sold with a guarantee from owners that streets will be graveled and oiled, that all sidewalks and curbing will be built, that parking will be completed and that trees will be planted.

While Improvements are being completed

20% discount from list prices will be given to the first ten persons buying lots!

For the purpose of securing the erection of a few houses:

40% discount from list prices will be given to the first five persons buying lots on which houses are erected within ninety days from date of purchase.

All lots in this entire subdivision will be sold under restrictions, which means that the POLYTECHNIC VILLA SUBDIVISION will soon become one of the best residential districts of Santa Ana, and under this very liberal proposition anyone desiring a home can secure it with a cash payment of only 60 per cent of value of lot and a monthly payment very little, if any, more than rent.

To persons desiring to make a quick profit on a small investment, this is their chance if they come in time.

We will be pleased to show these lots with auto and explain terms of payment at any time.

If purchaser pays for lot and has not the money to build a house we will loan the funds necessary on easy monthly payments.
